

EXCEPS Film Series

The Exeter Centre for Ethno-Political Studies

presents

11th Feb: No Man's Land

A lot can happen between the lines... - Bosnia Herzegovina during 1993 at the time of the heaviest fighting between the two warring sides. Two soldiers from opposing sides in the conflict, Nino and Ciki, become trapped in no man's land.

11th Mar: Blood Diamond

Set in Sierra Leone during the civil war from 1996 to 1999, the film shows a country torn apart by the violent struggle between government soldiers and rebel forces; a struggle fuelled by citizens and businesses in the developed world.

13th May: The Wind that Shakes the Barley

In 1920s Ireland, two brothers join the IRA, which is fighting a guerrilla war against the British. Finally a truce is signed, but when one faction of the fighters accepts a treaty regarded as being unfair by the other faction, a civil war ensues, pitting brothers against brothers.

Each film is preceded by a short introductory talk about its historical and political context.

IAIS LT1 | 5:30pm | free entrance